U. N. Committee Okays India's Peace Proposal, 53-5

Soviet Bloc Votes Against Acceptance

United Nations, N. Y. (AP)—Climaxing the most bitter battle in years, the U. N. Political Committee last night approved overwhelmingly India's battered Korean peace plan endorsing the Western stand against forced repatriation of prisoners.

The committee furthermore appealed to the Communists to change their blunt rejection and accept the proposal as a just basis for an agreement ending the Korean War.

The vote was 53 to 5 (Soviet Bloc) with one abstention (Nationalist China).

The resolution now goes to the full U. N. Assembly, which is slated to meet Wednesday in a move to speed final approval and rush the U. N. action to Asia.

Just before the vote, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky doctored any lingering Asian hopes of an agreement on this basis by tongue lashing India and her delegate, V. K. Krishna Menon, who master-minded the proposal in the committee.

Menon appealed to Vishinsky to accept the plan in the name of peace, but Vishinsky shot back that the appeal was "pathetic" and "judicious."

The Soviet foreign minister said: "We won't be carried away by any false and spurious appeals for unity, thus trying to turn eyes on us. No, the eyes are on you, Mr. Menon. You by your resolution are trying to push people into the holocaust of war... At best sir, you are dreamers, fantasists... at the worst, you, Mr. Menon, don't understand your own position as regards the Americans."

Orlando, 92, Dies In Italy

Rome (AP)—Vittorio Emanuele Orlando, last surviving member of the Big Four architects of the peace of Versailles, died at his home last night at the age of 92.

The man who steered Italy to victory in the first world war suffered a stroke a week ago. Although he clung tenaciously to life, he knew the end was near.

Before he sank into a coma Wednesday, the silver-haired Sicilian statesman, called "Premier of Victory" by the Italians, asked for the last rites of the Roman Catholic church. Msgr. Mario Nasalli Rocca de Corneliano administered them and conveyed the special blessing of Pope Pius XII.

The climax of his career came at Versailles. There he joined the other three giants of the Big Four—President Woodrow Wilson, Prime Minister David Lloyd George of Britain and Premier Georges Clemenceau of France—to write the Treaty of Versailles.

Orlando never signed the treaty. Italy had demanded inclusion of Fiume in her post-war kingdom.

Leaders Alarmed By High Cost Of Campaigns

Washington (AP)—Leaders of both major parties in Congress estimated yesterday the recent presidential campaign may have cost as much as 100 million dollars, or roughly $1.65 for every vote.

Agreeing that the situation presented an "alarming" picture, members of a special House committee began a series of hearings designed to crack down on such huge expenditures in the future and revise the present out-moded laws.

Among other things, the committee heard suggestions: One—that "the outcome of an election should not be determined by which side has got the most money."

Two—that a time limit should be imposed on the length of campaigns to hold down spending and conserve the health of candidates.

Editor Defends Lurid Sex Books

Washington (AP)—An editor of luridly sexy books told a hostile House investigating group yesterday that the writings "reflect the life and times of the people" and are no racier than some of the words of Shakespeare, Homer and Plato.

The testimony came from Ralph Daigh, editorial director of Fawcett Publications of New York City.

Great Britain Accuses Russia Of Doubling Size, Firepower Of East German Forces

London (AP)—Britain accused Russia last night of nearly doubling the size and firepower of a modern East German land, air and sea force within the last six months.

A press statement issued by the Foreign Office said the East German "people's police" now is developing into a well-organized force with modern weapons closely supervised by Soviet officers.

The statement constituted a warning that rearmament of Western Germany was vital to the defense against the threat of Communist aggression.

The three arms of the force constitute cadre units with a high proportion of officers, and as such can be swiftly expanded if present.

ent coercive methods of recruitment are intensified, the statement said.

Until recently the people's police was estimated to be about 55,000 strong, the Foreign Office said, but according to evidence which has reached Britain from undisclosed sources in recent weeks, more than 100,000 East Germans now are under arms. It added that they are equipped with Soviet tanks, self-propelled guns, howitzers and anti-aircraft artillery.

The Foreign Office commented: "There can be no doubt that final decisions by all countries concerned on the West German defense contribution are a matter of growing urgency in view of increasing East German rearmament as an addition to the military strength of the Soviet bloc."

This was a reference to the agreement of the Atlantic Allies to set up a European Army with 500,000 West German troops in it. Neither France which sponsored the idea nor the West German Parliament so far have ratified the agreement.

Thus far, the statement said, not a single West German has been turned into a soldier pending final ratification of the European Army plan. Other countries whose troops would be merged in the Army are Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Senator Demands Dismissal Of American U. N. Economist

New York (AP)—An angry demand was lodged yesterday for the firing of a United Nations-affiliated economist who refused to say whether he ever was a wartime spy.

The American-born economist, Frank Coe, is secretary of the International Monetary Fund and has been named in the past before Senate probes as a Red. He has denied this on other occasions.

Six Escaped Prisoners Still Free

Pittsburgh (AP)—Police captured two of eight escaped convicts from Western State Penitentiary yesterday and intensified their search for six others who overpowered guards and a deputy warden.

Of the 10 who made a break for freedom instead of attending church services in the big prison, four are back in cells. One was caught on the prison roof and another was found cowering behind some rocks just outside the gates a few minutes after the escape.

The rattle of gunfire marked one capture—that of Ralph Mastermonie, 32, Pittsburgh, serving 10 to 20 years for armed robbery. He was spotted on busy Diamond St. in downtown Pittsburgh by two alert policemen.

Also captured was Cormack McNellis, 38, of nearby Clairton. He was caught by six policemen in a restaurant in McKeesport.

White House Chat Held By Mamie And First Lady

Washington (AP)—The nation's first lady and the lady who will succeed her had a private chat yesterday about the problems of running the White House—just as their husbands talked over world problems two weeks ago.

Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower, at Mrs. Harry Truman's invitation came down by train from New York and spent an hour and a half going through the historic mansion at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. She and her husband will move in after the inauguration Jan. 20.

The room that seemed to interest Mrs. Eisenhower the most was a playroom on the recently remodeled third floor. The three Eisenhower grandchildren, when they come to visit, will be the first youngsters to romp in this room.

Surgery, Hormones Turn Man, 26, Into Attractive Woman

Copenhagen, Denmark (AP)—An attractive 26-year-old blonde American girl—who until recently was a man—said from her hospital bed last night she might one day write a book on her strange sex conversion.

The man turned girl, Christine Jorgensen, said she was happy, although scared to be facing the world as a female. She was born the son of a carpenter in the Bronx section of New York City and named George Jr. The youth once served as a clerk in the U. S. Army.

Danish specialists at the state hospital here brought about the sex conversion which took two years, involving hormone treatments and surgery.

During the long conversion period Christine studied color photography, and she intends to return to the United States some day—with a U. S. woman's passport—to continue her career.

Speaking in a melodious, rather deep alto voice, she told how she had been forced to lock her hospital room door to escape "silly curious people who ask questions like: Do you sleep in pajamas or nightgown? Do you intend to marry? Will you ever become a mother?"

Dr. Christian Hamburger, Danish hormone expert who directed the operation, said the treatment was about complete and Christine would be released from the hospital soon. He and the other specialists have declined to discuss details of the treatment.

Reporters and photographers were barred from her room. Miss Jorgensen finally consented to see this correspondent. A big bouquet of roses was the pass key.

The flowers were accepted with a charming smile, but she warned: "No pictures and no silly questions." She added:

"I don't want my pictures in any paper if I can prevent it. After all, I am leaving the hospital in a few days, and I don't want people to turn and look at me in the streets telling each other: 'Did you see her? She is a man who became a woman!'"

Miss Jorgensen said she would stay in Copenhagen for some time to present to the Danish public a movie film she made.

"So awfully much depends on that picture," she said. "After all this silly fuss about my person, I'm afraid people will come to my film to see me rather than my pictures."

Christine said she devoted all her strength to the shooting of the film during the last two years in which she had to visit the doctors constantly for the hormone treatments.

"I think it is so ridiculous that people pay such curious interest to a thing that seems natural to me," she declared in further reference to her conversion. "Many people have deformed legs or arms, but nobody disturbs their privacy. Nature deformed me in another way. I was treated and people gape."

At the Jorgensen home in the Bronx, Christine's mother commented: "We are sure Christine George will make out well as a girl." Said Christine:

CIO Asks End Of Pay Curbs

Atlantic City (AP)—Delegates attending opening sessions of the CIO convention yesterday called for an end of government wage controls and applauded a suggested merger with the rival AFL.

The delegates appeared to be still deadlocked, however, in a furious, behind-scenes battle for votes on a successor to the late Phillip Murray as the CIO's president.

Forces supporting Walter Reuther, president of the big auto workers union, and Allan S. Haywood, CIO executive vice president, were engaged in a neck-and-neck race for the top CIO post, with neither side giving any quarter.

A few relatively small unions, including the rubber workers and oil workers, were holding caucuses to determine their positions in the leadership fight, and could hold the balance of power in the tilt for political control of the labor group.

The end of government wage controls was recommended in a resolution unanimously adopted by the convention. It also urged dropping most price controls, but retaining checks on rents and use of scarce materials.

Hunter Dies, Three Wounded In Pike County

One hunter dead of overexertion and three accidentally wounded—that was the Pike County toll for the opening of deer season yesterday.

There were no Monroe County accidents reported.

The dead man was Arthur Biondi, 53 of Archibald, Pa., who had suffered for some time from heart disease.

Pike County Coroner Walter Degan said Biondi was at a camp with his brother and two friends near Westcolong Lake in Lackawaxen Township.

The four left camp yesterday just before the 9 a.m. opening hour, and hiked three miles through the brush toward a deer run.

Biondi was in the lead, the coroner was told. As he reached the crest of a hill he collapsed. When the others arrived he was at the point of death. Efforts to revive him failed. Coroner Degan said death resulted from coronary occlusion.

The time of death was established as 15 minutes after the start of the hunting season.

In a freak accident, young William P. Meixell, 18, Bethlehem, was wounded in the face, left arm and left leg by pieces of shrapnel from his own shotgun barrel.

Two Blakely State troopers, Harold Stahl and Joseph H. Bainbridge, on special detail to the Porters Lake section, reported the accident as follows:

Meixell was sitting on a log near the Ridge Road, Porter Township, at 3:30 p.m. waiting for a deer to show up. He was holding his single-barrel .16 gauge shotgun. A moment later he received the puncture wounds in the face, arm and leg.

Meixell, not wounded seriously, shouted for help from his father who was hunting with him. He thought at first that his own shotgun had gone off. Then he looked at his gun.

There was a hole completely through the shotgun barrel, about an inch and a half from the muzzle.

Police said a highpowered rifle bullet had undoubtedly pierced the shotgun barrel, and the pieces of metal "shrapnel" had wounded Meixell. He was treated at the General Hospital, East Stroudsburg, and released.

Also treated at the General Hospital was Stanley J. Dziedzic, 29, Allentown, who blew off his (Continued on page three)

Fire Claims Fifth Victim

Kane, (AP)—Charles Mason Sr., 35, of Meadville, whose wife and three children were burned to death in a hunting lodge fire Sunday, died yesterday from burns suffered in the same blaze.

Mason, his wife Helen, 27, and the children were part of a party who were spending the night at the two-room lodge at Sackett, near Ridgway, preparing for the opening of deer season. Mason died in Kane Summit Hospital at Kane.

State police said the fire was set off when Mason attempted to start a fire in the lodge's stove with kerosene oil. An explosion resulted.

Two other 10-point bucks were reported: One was killed at Cranberry Swamp near Tannersville by Arthur Manley, Philadelphia; the other, by Carl Landis, of Panther, near his home a half hour after season opened.

Youngest hunter reported successful was Tommy Besecker, 14, Tannersville, who was in the party with Manley, and who dropped a 125-pound buck.

Another youngster who killed his first buck at 9:30 a.m. in the East Stroudsburg RD3 section was Bobby Hallett, 17, Tannersville, a Pocono High School student who was with a party hunting on the farm of his grandfather, Stanley Hallett, East Stroudsburg RD3. It was an 8-point buck.

One early kill reported was by Dr. Robert Rochford, Sterling, who (Continued on page three)

Trenton (AP)—A couple of traveling men—a railroad conductor and a salesman—were the first car operators to cross the new Trenton-Morrisville (Pa.) toll bridge which opened for traffic yesterday.

Average Kill Reported First Day Of Deer Season; Youth Bags 10-Point, 180-Lb. Buck

Gunpowder smoke tinged the stinging clear air in virtually every square mile of the Poconos yesterday.

The light tracking snow in the woods and the snapping-bright day made for good conditions as the thousands of hunters flocked into the woods and brushy areas for the opening of deer season.

Although hunters were plentiful, there were somewhat fewer than last year. Game Protector John Doebing said the kill appeared to be a little lighter than last year, but was close to average.

No accurate check was available last night, but Doebing said he had himself checked more than 50 deer, and he had an additional 10 men working in his district.

Pike County was also reported fairly heavily covered by the influx of hunters.

Doebing reported about 10 minor game law violations, mostly such things as starting to hunt before the 9 a.m. opening hour. A majority of the violations were settled with field fines.

Doebing said the biggest buck he has seen while working as game protector in Monroe County was a 10-point buck weighing 180 pounds, killed illegally one year. Yesterday a 16-year-old East Stroudsburg High School junior, matched that.

The youth, Harry Hinelein, 212 Smith St., East Stroudsburg, was on his first deer hunting excursion, with another student, Arthur Brush, East Stroudsburg.

The two were in the Wooddale section north of Anasomink. About 4 p.m. a buck appeared. Hinelein dropped him with two shot in the shoulder. It was the prize winner of the day by points and weight.

The buck was a 10-pointer. Its weight: 180 pounds.

Two other 10-point bucks were reported: One was killed at Cranberry Swamp near Tannersville by Arthur Manley, Philadelphia; the other, by Carl Landis, of Panther, near his home a half hour after season opened.

Durkin, Weeks Fill Commerce, Labor Offices

New York (AP)—President-elect Dwight Eisenhower's Cabinet was completed yesterday with the announcement that he has designated GOP party official Sinclair Weeks of Boston for secretary of commerce and labor leader Martin P. Durkin of Chicago for secretary of labor.

Durkin is an AFL union leader and a Democrat who voted for Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson. He is the only member of the Democratic party in the Cabinet.

He is general president, United Association of Journeymen and Apprentices of the Plumbing and Pipe-Fitting Industry of the United States and Canada, International Union, American Federation of Labor.

In Washington, he told reporters he was surprised by the appointment but believed Eisenhower will give full consideration to the problems of labor and that he will help all he can to make Eisenhower's administration a successful one.

Announcement of the two designations for the Cabinet was made by Arthur S. Vandenberg Jr., who will be White House secretary in the next administration. Walter Williams, of Seattle, Wash., has been designated to be under secretary of commerce, Vandenberg announced.

With the two designations yesterday, the Cabinet lineup stood:

Defense—Charles E. Wilson, Detroit; State—John Foster Dulles, New York; Treasury—George M. Humphrey, Cleveland; Agriculture—Ezra Taft Benson, Salt Lake City; Interior—Gov. Douglas McKay, Oregon; Labor—Martin P. Durkin, Chicago; Commerce—Sinclair Weeks, Boston; Attorney General—Herbert Brownell, New York; Postmaster-general—Arthur E. Summerfield, Flint, Mich.

Durkin is the first appointee to be taken directly from a labor union office and named for secretary of labor. Some previous secretaries had been connected with the union movement prior to going into the cabinet.

Durkin also is vice president of the Catholic Conference on Industrial Problems and director of the Union Labor Life Insurance and National Safety Council.

Durkin was born March 18, 1894. At 17, he was a steamfitter's apprentice in Chicago. He held the office of business manager of the United Association, Local 597, for 20 years. For eight years, 1933-41, he was Illinois state director of labor, serving under Governors Henry Horner, John Stelle and Dwight Green.

He served in the field artillery and in the 6th Cavalry during World War I. He is married and has three children.

Weeks is chairman of the Republican National Finance Committee.

He served 10 months in the Senate in 1944 but did not run for reelection. He had been national committeeman from Massachusetts State Committee for two years before that.

He is chairman of the board of directors in two Massachusetts business firms and a director of three others and the First National Bank of Boston.

Weeks was born in West Newton, Mass., June 15, 1893, graduated from Harvard in 1914, and a captain in the 101st Field Artillery in 1917-19. He is married and has six children.

County Grand Jury To Receive Five Criminal Cases Today

Petit Jury To Convene Next Monday

Five criminal cases will be presented today to the Monroe County Grand Jury.

The list, to be presented by District Attorney Elmer D. Christine, shows four persons charged with motor vehicle violations, and a fifth with assault and battery.

Charged with drunken driving are Leonard H. Auer, Stroudsburg, RD2, and Charley E. Rowe, of 93 First St., Stroudsburg.

Rowe was arrested by Pfc. Emil J. Weber, Stroudsburg substation, Oct. 21 on Third St., Stroudsburg. Auer was arrested by Officer Charles Allen, Stroudsburg, Nov. 7 in that borough. There was reportedly no accident involved in either case.

Frank Shelley, 265 Prospect St., East Stroudsburg, will be accused of operating a motor vehicle after his driver's license was suspended.

He was arrested by Pfc. Alex G. Kearns, Stroudsburg substation, following a two-car collision on Route 612 in Smithfield Township Nov. 13.

Failing to stop at an accident scene will be the charge against Harold F. Wagner, Bangor, arrested by Pfc. Weber on Route 90 April 22. Police charged him with failing to stop after sideswiping a truck.

The remaining case involves a charge of assault and battery filed by Marion Frable, Kresgeville, against a neighbor, Sadie Spadt, that village.

After it finishes hearing the charges and statements on the criminal list, the jury will begin its inspection of county-operated facilities.

The petit jury will meet next Monday to begin trial work and dispose of civil cases.

The civil trial list originally numbered 42 cases—32 trespass actions, seven assault actions and three others. Twenty-five were 1952 cases, while 15 were continued from 1951, one was date 1950 and one was held over from 1949.

Yesterday, however, 25 of the cases had been continued, eight were marked definitely for trial, while six were left undecided. Two of the cases were settled out of court and one was stricken from the list.

Of the 14 cases set for trial or possible trial, one is an assumption and the others are trespass actions.

Two Plead Guilty In County Court

Two men pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated at county court session yesterday.

Each was arrested by Officer Travis Seese, East Stroudsburg, on Nov. 8, although two separate accidents were involved.

The men were Lewis H. Hoffman, 402 Normal St., East Stroudsburg, and Robert Dyson, Long Pond. President Judge Fred W. Davis deferred sentencing until next Monday in both instances.

Hoffman's car struck a parked car and shoved it into a second parked auto at Sixth and N. Courtland Sts., East Stroudsburg. Dyson's auto was in a collision with a taxi at N. Courtland and Gay Sts.

Defense Supply Methods Probed

Washington, (AP)—Rep. Bonner (D-N.C.) said yesterday he had heard "rumors" that the military was disregarding orders of Congress against operating expensive duplicating supply systems.

Bonner, chairman of a House "watchdog" subcommittee, summoned top defense officials to "find out exactly what has been done" in hearings set for Wednesday.

The Bonner expenditures subcommittee launched an investigation two years ago into military supply "empires" and overlapping supply systems of the individual services. The Air Force was singled out for particular criticism.

"I have heard rumors it may or not be correct—that there hasn't been a great deal of progress in making the regulations work," Bonner said in a statement.

TYPICAL OF THE successful deer slayers who turned out by the thousands yesterday were William Probst, 21A Park St., East Stroudsburg (left) who dropped this 135-pounder at 9:45 a.m. near the East Stroudsburg water works, and William Serfass and his father, Palmer, of 300 Pine St., Stroudsburg, who killed their deer in the Paradise section at 10 a.m. Palmer Serfass dropped the animal.

Cold Wave To Continue

By The Associated Press

A frigid blast of wintry weather gripped Pennsylvania for the fourth straight day and the weatherman predicted more of the same today.

Snow, sleet and continued subfreezing temperatures was the forecast.

The mercury is expected to hover in the 20s throughout the day across the state with some snow or sleet in the western portions and snow with increasing cloudiness in the east.

More snow would make Pennsylvania's highways increasingly hazardous at a time when many still were being cleared from the season's first sizable snowstorm last weekend. Ice roads caused hundreds of accidents and at least one fatality was reported.

Feeling the bite more than others were hundreds of deer hunters whose search for game took them into the coldest sections of the state.

In Elk County, a wild but popular hunting region, the unofficial low temperature on the opening day of the deer season Monday was five degrees below zero. But the nippy weather didn't appear to reduce the number of hunters by much.

Hunter Fined After Accident

An unsuccessful home-bound hunter was charged with reckless driving yesterday after his car crashed a guard rail at Effort.

Shortly after 5 p.m. William Latham Jr., 34, of Easton, hit the guard rails along Route 115, knocking over several of the posts.

Damage to the car was estimated at $150. Brodheadville State police charged Latham with driving recklessly. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Floyd U. Shupp, Effort, and fined $25. The fine was paid.

New President Inaugurated

Mexico City, (AP)—Adolfo Ruiz Cortines was inaugurated President of Mexico yesterday and promised he would do everything in his power to reduce the cost of living.

Special missions from 57 foreign countries attended the brilliant ceremonies in the Bellas Artes Theater where Ruiz, 62-year-old veteran government administrator, took the oath of office for a six-year term.

He succeeds Miguel Aleman, the first civilian president in 80 years to finish his term and yield the reins of government to another civilian.

In his inaugural address Ruiz said:

"I will do all possible to bring the cost of corn, beans, sugar, fats and cloth within the reach of the whole people."

He added that his administration will try to build up farming, transportation and industry on a balanced program so none will advance at the expense of the others.

In general, he promised a middle-of-the-road regime, with accent on balance between all factors, and pledged support to the democracies in world affairs.

got a 6-pointer near Greentown at 9:15.

Twenty-seven persons from outside the county were reported to have made kills in the north end of the county.

Some local residents who were successful in the north county area included:

Panther residents: John Michl, 4 points, near Panther; Chris Uhl, 6 points, near Panther; Leonard Razny Sr., 8 points, near Panther; Lew Arnold, 6 points, near Panther.

Greentown residents included: Albert Smith, a 6-pointer near Angels; Robert Burke, George Schmolze, both with 6-pointers, and Wilbur Head Jr., a 4-pointer, all killed near Greentown, and Charles Morieko, a 4-pointer near Brink Hill.

And James Gilpin, South Sterling, a 6-pointer near Grassy Ridge; Lawrence Bartleson, Laanna, an 8-pointer near there; and George Frisbie, South Sterling, a 4-pointer near Grassy Ridge.

David Frailey, Reeder's, bagged a 6-pointer in the woods behind his home about 10 a.m. Carl LeBar, Roller St., East Stroudsburg, got a 5-pointer near Marshalls Creek. Stanley Singer, Minisink Hills, nailed a 6-pointer while hunting alone in the Minisink Hills section.

Forrest C. Burrington, of 12 Park St., East Stroudsburg, bagged a 6-point buck at 9:45 near Winona Falls. Willard and Floyd Butz Jr. and E. F. Doll, of Marshalls Creek, in party hunting at Marshalls Creek. Floyd Butz Jr., son of Monroe County recorder of deeds, shot a 4-pointer at 9:10 a.m., the earliest reported, and Doll bagged a 6 prong at 9:20.

Police said he had seen that snow had stopped up the end of his weapon. He decided to eject the shell from the chamber in order to clean the snow out . . . but had his thumb over the muzzle as he started to do so.

A defective safety gave way, police said. The weapon fired, and blew off the thumb and cut the adjoining finger. Two friends, Wallace Mory and Ralph Berrio, both of Bethlehem, took Dziedzic in for medical treatment.

A highpowered rifle bullet struck Edward Place, 36, Spring City, in the right leg at 3:30 p.m., causing a compound fracture.

Police said he had been hunting near Dingmans Ferry with two friends and had walked into the

12-Year-Olds Among Early Deer Slayers

Harrisburg, (AP)—Two 12-year-old hunters last night laid claim to being the first successful hunters of Pennsylvania's 1952 deer buck season.

The 12-day shoot, longest in 26 years, opened at 9 a.m. yesterday in all counties of the state.

John V. Juran Jr., of Grantville RD1, accompanied by his father, started out on his first deer hunt with a brand new rifle at the dot of 9. At 9:05, with his first shot, the youngster brought down a 6-point buck at Manada Gap, near Hanover Twp., and at the base of Blue Mountain.

The deer ran across the hunter's path at about a distance of 100 yards.

The second 12-year-old, Craig Kinzer, of Williamsport, reported bagging a 5-point buck in Lycoming County just 10 minutes after the beginning of the season.

As the first of an estimated 650,000 deer hunters took to the forests, a State Game Commission official predicted a possible record kill.

"We think with the light snow on the ground for tracking and with the clear weather, there could be a record kill this year," said Charles Stambaugh, chief clerk of the Wildlife Protection Division of the commission.

Before the season even got under way, however, five deaths across the state were attributed indirectly to deer hunting. The wife and three children of a Meadville man preparing to take part in this morning's opening, burned to death at a hunting lodge near Ridgway, Elk County.

A 12-year-old girl, Agnes Cunnius, was accidentally killed near Reading by a shot from a rifle of an uncle who had been practicing for the season with a new weapon.

woods about 100 yards off Legislative Route 51006.

Place said he heard two shots. He thinks the first was the one which snapped the bone in his leg. The bullet entered his leg from the rear.

Place called out but no one showed himself, police said. The two friends came to Place's assistance, took him to Dr. Harvey Klaier, Milford. The physician sent Place home afterward.

Coal Lost But Trees Avert Serious Crash

Trachville—Young pine trees kept a tractor-trailer loaded with coal from plunging down a steep embankment here at 3:15 a.m. yesterday.

As a result, the driver escaped with only minor bruises when his truck tire blew out and the vehicle swerved and went through a guard rail.

The 15 tons of buckwheat coal were thrown out as the truck tilted and went over on its side. The pines kept the truck from rolling on down the hill, according to witnesses.

The driver climbed out and hitchhiked back to Lehighton, where the truck is garaged by the K. Schmidt firm. Fifteen minutes after he left, another passing truck driver saw a glow in the cab. He stopped and put in an alarm.

The Towamensing Fire Co. responded from Trachville, confined the damage to the upholstery and interior of the cab.

The truck was still in the field, owned by Clyde Buck, Trachville merchant, late last night.

Industrial Production At New Peak

Washington, (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board estimated yesterday that industrial production rose to a post-war high in October and climbed on upward in November.

The board's monthly report on business conditions said estimates indicate the index of industrial production in October was 227—that is, 127 per cent over the average on industrial production from 1935 to 1939, which is taken as 100.

That was one percentage point above industrial production in September and nine points above the index for October last year. All figures were seasonally adjusted.

The highest point was reached at the peak of World War II production when the index rose to 247, seasonally adjusted, in October and November of 1943.

Rainforest Castle is situated on the eastern slopes of the Scottish Highlands on the River Dee.

Some Petrels spend most of their time on or over water, going to land only for nesting.

Lake Ontario is the smallest and most easterly of the Great Lakes.

DiSalle was sworn in yesterday as special consultant to Economic Stabilizer Roger L. Putnam, who summoned him here to advise and make recommendations on price controls.

Putnam told newsmen at the press conference he hopes DiSalle's study and proposals "will set at rest many of the rumors that the administration is about to abolish controls, especially on consumer goods."

Wholesale Price Average Declines

Washington, (AP)—The wholesale price average dipped 0.2 per cent last week to 110.1 per cent of the 1947-9 average, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported yesterday.

A decline of 0.9 per cent in farm products, attributed mainly to lower prices on cattle, hogs, eggs and some grains, accounted for the drop in the commodity index.

Processed foods dropped 0.7 per cent.

Felker Enters Guilty Plea To Forgery

A plea of guilty to forgery was made in county court yesterday by Stewart W. Felker, 35, of 835 Thomas St., Stroudsburg, a Plumbiers Union official.

Sentence was deferred by President Judge Fred W. Davis until next Monday. The case was prosecuted by District Attorney Elmer D. Christine.

There was no recital of the facts involved in the case at yesterday's appearance. This will probably take place at the time of sentencing. The forgery reportedly involved Felker's activities as secretary and business agent of the union.

He allegedly forged the name of union President Harry Hartman to monthly cash sheets which were forwarded to national headquarters, without Hartman's knowledge or consent, authorities said.

Audit Hearing To Resume

Hearing on a taxpayers' appeal from the 1951 county audit will be resumed today in county court.

Presiding at the hearing will be President Judge James C. McCready, Carbon County jurist. The appeal came up for its first hearing recently, was continued in order to give time for counsel to "frame the issues" involved in the case.

The appeal was filed June 24 by 14 persons. They are represented by Attorneys Charles R. Bensing Jr. and Arlington Williams.

The appeal listed eight specifications of error. One of the major specifications mentions payment of lump sum expense allowances for Institution District travel expenses to Commissioner Granville Shiffer, and former commissioners Willard Quick and H. D. Kresge.

Pocono Twp. Property Transferred

A property on Route 611 in Pocono Township has been transferred to Kabelac and Robbins Insurance Agency, that township, according to deeds recorded at the Court House yesterday.

Grantors were Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Kabelac, with Kabelac serving as one of the firm's partners. The property adjoins the Kresge service station.

Mary A. Heller, Jackson Township, and the Stroudsburg Security Trust Co., as trustee for the late Russell J. Heller, transferred to Charles E. and Sherwood G. Rabenold, Wilmington, Del., a residence in Jackson Township adjoining land of James Steen. The property runs along Pencil Creek, contains about 62 acres, and fronts on the Appenzell-Sciota road.

A residence at 129 First St., Stroudsburg, has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Riccio, Lafayette, R. I., to J. L. Riccio, Stroudsburg, parents of the grantors.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT, as well as for nourishment marked the American Association of University Women's meeting last night. Influence of Womens Clubs Gaining New Recognition, AAUW State President Says

Not only politicians, but advertisers, manufacturers, investment companies are suddenly catering to women's groups throughout the whole country, Mrs. Herbert W. Anderson, president of the Pennsylvania Division of the American Association of University Women, said last night in speaking to the members of the local branch at their meeting at the Stroud Community House.

Aroused by the role women and women's groups played in the recent election, they are seeking not only their economic support but their backing and influence in other matters, she said, and urged all women's groups to capitalize on that increased prestige to accomplish some of the things they have long been advocating.

Among other things she listed more women in community affairs. Tied down with homes and families they are often not free to serve on state and national levels, but are eminently qualified to serve on the local level. She suggested posts on the town councils, terming town government "a matter of good housekeeping," on school boards, and other local appointive or elective offices.

Although there are now 12 women in Congress, there were 48 who were candidates, she said; there are 5 women in the state legislature, both groups far short of proportionate representation. Women's groups, too, could write for the crisis in education, with groups with patriotic-sounding names attacking the very foundations of the school system; and with over-crowding a matter of concern in almost every community.

Propaganda, given out as news, was another concern of all women, she said and study groups and other media should be used to determine the amount and type of propaganda on the air.

She spoke, too, on purely AAUW matters, pointing to the need for recognition on state and local levels commensurate with that accorded the national organization; and of plans for state and national conventions.

Mrs. Anderson was the guest of the local branch at a dinner meeting arranged by Mrs. Charles Albert and her committee with Christmas decorations dominating the theme. Dr. Veva Dean presided at the business meeting.

The Book Fair held last month raised $192.04 for Fellowship, the report of Miss Helen Brown, chairman, showed. Mrs. Albert announced a meeting of the School for Parents Committee on Thursday night at 8 at the home of Mrs. William Wyckoff. The International Relations Study Group will hold its second meeting on the fourth Thursday in January.

Mrs. J. L. Cohen, chairman of the program committee, announced a discussion on Incelat at the January meeting.

Dickens Own "Carol" For Club Tonight

Dickens' "Christmas Carol" will be presented tonight at the meeting of the Junior Woman's Club at the Stroud Community House at 8 o'clock much as Charles Dickens himself read it on his American lecture tour.

Miss Islay Benson, who is to be the featured artist, had as one of her teachers Mary Cherry Norris, who in her youth had known Dickens and to whom he had given the copy of "A Christmas Carol" which he had used on his American tour.

Miss Benson was born in England, but has spent most of her life in New York City, where she studied with Frances Robinson Duff, who has coached such actresses as Katharine Hepburn, Helen Hayes and Norma Shearer. Miss Benson has played in radio shows with Charles Laughton, Helen Hayes, Marlene Dietrich, Frederick March, Edward Everett Horton, Claude Rains, Rex Harrison and Sarah Churchill. She has appeared on Broadway in "Hand and Glove."

In the character sketches of a "Christmas Carol," Miss Benson merely suggests the characters, leaving it to the words of Dickens himself to clothe them fully in each hearer's imagination.

Pike Co. GOP Women Recess For Winter

Milford — The Pike County Council of Republican Women held its regular monthly meeting on Monday, November 17, at the Courthouse in Milford starting at 8 p. m.

A question and answer quiz on Court Procedure was conducted among the members.

Decision was made to recess regular meetings until Monday, April 3.

After the close of the business meeting, Calvin Rosencrance, Prothonotary of Pike County, conducted the group on a tour of his office in the courthouse. The Council learned that the office of Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas in Pike County also includes serving in six other capacities, each of which is a separate position in most localities. They are Register of Wills, Recorder of Deeds, Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions, Clerk of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, Clerk of Orphans Court.

The tour included a visit to the Records' Vault with the opportunity to have the maps of streets and lots in Pike County explained.

As an unexpected post script, Mrs. Levi Cole conducted the members through the Milford Jail.

A reminder notice will appear in this paper shortly before meetings resume in April.

Supper Brings $231 For Firemen At Saylorsburg

Saylorsburg — The Ladies Auxiliary of the Blue Ridge Hook and Ladder Co., met Tuesday night at the fire hall, Mrs. Grant Knowles, president, presided at the business meeting.

Mrs. Willard Shoemaker chairman of the last penny supper, announced that $231.50 had been cleared, and she thanked all those that donated and helped make the supper successful, despite the stormy weather.

At the December meeting, it was decided to have a Christmas party, with a gift exchange of a 50c gift, during the social hour instead of playing games. Officers will be elected for the coming year.

It was decided to ask the women of Kunkletown who are interested in starting an Auxiliary, to the December meeting. During the social hour games were enjoyed. Mrs. Rose Gower had baked doughnuts for the crowd, which were served with coffee.

Poplar Valley — The Poplar Valley WSCS will serve its annual Hunter's Dinner on Wednesday, December 3, at noon. The Hunter's dinner has become a regular event each year, and any men hunting in the vicinity are invited to join the local men who make it a practice to attend each year.

Following the dinner, the women will hold their own meeting. Secret pals will exchange Christmas gifts. Any member not having a secret pal is asked to bring a gift for someone else who may have no "pal."

This is a society Christmas party with the regular church Christmas party scheduled for later in the month.

Edith Pennise Fall Bride Of Walter Walk

Portland — At a Thanksgiving Day ceremony at St. Vincent's Catholic Church, this place, Miss Edith L. Pennise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orazio Pennise, Portland, was married to Walter J. Walk, son of Charles A. Walk and the late Mrs. Walk.

Rev. Joseph Kennedy, rector of the church, officiated. Mrs. Carl Finkbeiner furnished suitable organ wedding music and accompanied Miss Marilyn Hunt, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a satin gown, made with illusion neckline, long sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt ending in a train. A crown of beads and sequins held her fingertip veil. She carried a prayer book on which was an orchid.

Miss Rose Pennise, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and Miss Catherine Walk, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid.

Richard Walk, USAF, was best man for his brother, Samuel Pennise, brother of the bride, served as usher.

The maid-of-honor wore a melon rose gown of velvet and net while the bridesmaid was similarly attired in Kelly green. Both attendants wore matching headpieces and carried bouquets of mixed chrysanthemums.

Following a reception at Charles' Inn, the couple left on a trip through New York state. They will reside at Raritan, N. J.

Guidance Unit Case Worker To Visit Here

The local board of the Monroe-Northampton Child Guidance Clinic has arranged to have a case worker for the center here on alternate Tuesdays to consult with local parents who may have problems which they would like to take up with the clinic.

The center in Easton has always been open to local persons, but it was felt that having a case worker call here, with headquarters at the General Hospital, would enlarge the usefulness on the local level.

Her first visit will be this coming Tuesday when she plans to visit principals of the various schools. Two weeks from then, however, she will be available for appointments.

Parents who wish to talk with her may make their appointments with members of the local committee by writing to Dr. Harold Kolansky, at the Child Guidance Center, 220 Bushkill St., Easton; or by calling Easton 2-6293.

Members of the local board include: Ralph Burrows, Dr. Charlotte Jordan, Mrs. Clifford Butts, Roger Dunning and Mrs. Merle E. Stevenson.

Fidelity Class

Country Fair This Friday

Portland — The Fidelity Sunday School class of the Portland Presbyterian Church has completed plans for the annual Country Fair to be held in the school gym on Friday, December 5, from 3 p. m. on.

Refreshments will be served in the tea room and baked goods, fancy work, winter gardens, fancy candles, dressed dolls, stuffed animals, African violets and many articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be on sale.

Proceeds will be used for the building fund of the church.

Womans Club Officers Meet

The executive board of the Stroudsburg Woman's Club yesterday planned their Christmas meeting on December 8, purchased a $5 T. B. Bond, and sent to Miss Marion Swartley, of Stroudsburg High School, winner of the United Nations' Contest last spring, her prize check, at their meeting held at the Stroud Community House yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Parke Kunkle, vice president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. George Robinson. During the meeting announcements were made: of the Junior Woman's Club Christmas Dance at the Penn-Stroud on December 26, and of an open lecture at the Teachers College auditorium at 10 a. m. Thursday morning by Grace Davenport Brumhaugh who will speak on "Life in Japan".

It was also announced that Mrs. Robinson had prepared a scrap book on the work done by the Woman's Club on voting machine instruction to be entered in the national contest.

Mrs. I. B. Kiffin read an article on the Red Underground.

Present for the meeting were: Miss Lucie Girard, Miss Almee Girard, Mrs. Claude Cramer, Mrs. Richard Frodenberg, Mrs. Floyd Bachman, Mrs. J. Frank Grinn, Miss Miriam Lark, Mrs. Charles Mott, Mrs. Harold Ingraham, Mrs. A. A. Holbrook, Mrs. Alphonse Meyers, Mrs. Christie Shull, Mrs. W. R. Levering, Mrs. Grant Nitrauer, Mrs. Eli Travis, Mrs. I. B. Kiffin, Mrs. Edward Hess, Mrs. J. R. Gavin, Mrs. Harold Eaton, Mrs. A. Byrd McDowell, Mrs. Van D. Yetter and Mrs. Kunkle.

Henry Getz, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Jack and James Waltz, nephews of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a dress of blue, worn with a black velvet hat and fur stole. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress with black hat and they both wore corsages of pink roses.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Boat House at Pocono Pines. The bride's table was decorated with white flowers and candles and a four-tiered wedding cake with a decoration of white bells. A turkey dinner was served to the 95 guests, and dancing both round and square, followed to the music of an orchestra composed of Merlyn May, Vincent Costanzo and Clifford Stout.

Mrs. and Mrs. Getz left for a wedding trip to the Luray Caverns of Virginia and attended the Saturday night performance of the Jamboree at Wheeling, West Virginia.

For traveling the bride wore a winter white dress, grey coat trimmed with black velvet, black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. On their return they will be at home to their friends in an apartment in the Waltz home at Blakeslee.

The bride is a graduate of Tohyanna Township High School, and Mr. Getz is a graduate of White Haven High School. He is employed at Split Rock Lodge since being discharged from the army, where he served for a year and a half.

Executive Meeting — The executive board of the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Matthews Catholic Church will meet at the school auditorium Wednesday at 8 p. m. when arrangements will be made for future activities.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD J. GETZ are shown with the members of their wedding party: front row, left to right, Miss Ruth Hawk, Mrs. Glenmore Hayes, Mrs. Lloyd Getz, Mr. Getz, and Mrs. Mildred Froge. Back row, same order: Jack Waltz, Henry Getz and James Waltz.

Miss Waltz Is Bride Of Lloyd Getz

Blakeslee — The Blakeslee Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Eleanor Mae Waltz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Waltz, on Wednesday afternoon, November 12, at 3 p. m., to Lloyd J. Getz, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Getz, of White Haven.

Rev. Lane Weller performed the double ring ceremony. The apex of the church had been decorated with greens, forming the background for the large basket of white chrysanthemums and carnations, lighted candles and cross on the Communion table. Large baskets of chrysanthemums and carnations were on the altar and white satin bows marked the pews.

Mrs. William Staples Sr. was pianist, and played a program of appropriate music before the ceremony. Miss Gladys Blakeslee, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "Prayer" to the music of "O Promise Me", during the wedding prayers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white skinner satin with dropped shoulders, a yoke of nylon net, and a scalloped bertha collar. The long sleeves ended in points at the wrists, and the full skirt had a short train. Her fingertip tiered veil of illusion was edged with Alencon lace, and was held by a coronet of satin trimmed with pearls. She wore a necklace, earrings and pin of rhinestones and pearls, and carried a shiver bouquet of bridal roses and mums with satin streamers tied with ribbons.

Mrs. Glenmore Hayes was matron of honor, and wore a floor-length gown of aqua net and taffeta with headress to match, and carried a cascade bouquet of golden mums.

Mrs. Mildred Froge and Miss Ruth Hawk served as bridesmaids. Mrs. Froge wore a floor-length gown of shrimp net over taffeta with a matching headress, and she carried a cascade bouquet of blue mums. Miss Hawk's gown was navy green taffeta with matching headress and she carried a cascade bouquet of orchid mums.

Henry Getz, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Jack and James Waltz, nephews of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a dress of blue, worn with a black velvet hat and fur stole. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue dress with black hat and they both wore corsages of pink roses.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Boat House at Pocono Pines. The bride's table was decorated with white flowers and candles and a four-tiered wedding cake with a decoration of white bells. A turkey dinner was served to the 95 guests, and dancing both round and square, followed to the music of an orchestra composed of Merlyn May, Vincent Costanzo and Clifford Stout.

Mrs. and Mrs. Getz left for a wedding trip to the Luray Caverns of Virginia and attended the Saturday night performance of the Jamboree at Wheeling, West Virginia.

For traveling the bride wore a winter white dress, grey coat trimmed with black velvet, black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. On their return they will be at home to their friends in an apartment in the Waltz home at Blakeslee.

The bride is a graduate of Tohyanna Township High School, and Mr. Getz is a graduate of White Haven High School. He is employed at Split Rock Lodge since being discharged from the army, where he served for a year and a half.

Civil Air Patrol Observes Its Eleventh Anniversary

No special celebration was held in Monroe County for Civil Air Patrol's 11th anniversary yesterday.

The county CAP branch is too small, actually, for much of a celebration of the national event. But if its present commander, Paschall K. Webb, Delaware Water Gap, is successful, local CAP will be a lot bigger in future years.

At present the county branch lists 20 "senior members" aged 19 and up, and 16 "cadets," from 15 to 18 years old. Webb, a first lieutenant in the reserves who joined CAP after a wartime stretch in the merchant marine, would like to build the unit to 35 seniors and as many or more cadets.

Eventually, he plans to confer with school officials to see what can be done about stimulating interest among the county's younger residents.

The present roster of cadets is about half girls. Only one in the group of seniors who actually has a plane is Robert Warner Jr.

The county unit—officially tagged "Stroudsburg Squadron 805, Group 80, 31st Pennsylvania Wing (with headquarters in Allentown)"—also has a disabled army plane which it hopes to get flying again. First, however, it must raise a few hundred dollars for repairs. The plane, a gift from the Air Force, serves for instruction purposes at present.

Nationally there are 76,000 active CAP members, all volunteers, who can put 8,200 private planes in the air and man a radio network of 9,000 stations.

One of the most vital services beside wartime patrolling is search-and-rescue work throughout the U. S. CAP's small planes can fly lower and slower than Air Force jets and fighters, are thus ideally equipped for searches.

CAP last year flew almost 10,000 hours of actual search-rescue missions, and flies about 25,000 hours of missions of all types each year.

Auto Show To Be Held In February

A decision to hold an automobile show here in February was reached by unanimous vote at a meeting of the Monroe County Automobile Dealers Association last night at Glen Brook Country Club.

The 12 member dealers, tentatively set Feb. 13 and 14 as dates for the show, which will be held at the Armory.

The association studied reports from the New York and Chicago automobile shows, disclosing increased attendance over previous years, and this encouraged the dealers to go ahead with plans to display various models of the 1953 cars and trucks locally under one roof.

This will be the first auto show here in a number of years, officials pointed out, and this, coupled with the fact that there is a great interest nationwide in the new models, should assure a large attendance at the show.

To date, these automobiles have been entered: Cadillac, Chevrolet, DeSoto, Dodge, Ford, Hudson, Nash, Oldsmobile, Packard, Plymouth, Pontiac and Studebaker, and GMC and International trucks.

Janet Schulz attended the vocal recital given by Miss Barbara Trancus in Stroudsburg last week.

Thomas Regan returned home from St. Christopher's Hospital, Philadelphia, on Saturday.

Herbert B. Crane Elected School Board President; H.S. Instructor Retires

New president of Stroudsburg school board is Herbert B. Crane, elected last night to replace Norman O. Bender.

The election was held at the first meeting of the new season, following the sine die adjournment of the old school board minutes earlier. Former President Bender was elected to serve as temporary chairman of the board while new officers were being voted upon.

Crane, a Stroudsburg accountant, was vice-president of the board last year. New vice-president is Gerald P. Anderson, of the Stroudsburg Security Trust Co.

The new board begins its term with these balances in the treasury: General fund, $27,408.71; coupon account, $1,717.50; sinking fund, $33.36, and U. S. Treasury bonds at cost, $28,288.50. This is a total of $57,448.07.

Resignation of English and mathematics teacher Sarah L. Williams was accepted by the board, effective Jan. 9. She had reached retirement age. Mrs. Ray Welsh, a substitute teacher, will replace Mrs. Williams for the rest of the term, the board decided.

Membership in the State School Directors Association was continued by the new board.

Businessmen Elect Getz As President

The Stroudsburg Businessmen's Association held its annual reorganization meeting at Biggs' Restaurant last night, electing Ted Getz to the presidency to succeed Burt George, whose one-year term expired.

E. Holt Wyckoff was named vice president to succeed Don Holmgren, and A. A. Widmer was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Jerry Avlon revived the subject of subsidized bus service to bring in prospective shoppers from the resort area during a 12-week summer period. Les Drake, head of the Delaware Valley Transportation Co., gave his views from the transportation angle and Jacob Wachtman, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and the Vacation Bureau, commented briefly from the viewpoint of the various resorts.

After a lengthy discussion, it was decided to send out letters and make inquiries relating to the subject, and to report back at the January meeting.

Jack Kerlin, general manager of A. B. Wyckoff's Department Store, brought to the association's attention the fact that parking still is a major problem in the community. The businessmen discussed the matter briefly and decided to make the solution of the parking problem a major project of the association's 1953 program.

Materials needed to go ahead with the Christmas street lighting project have arrived, according to a report presented at the meeting, and orders have been given to erect the lights in the near future.

The matter of store hours for the Christmas shopping season was discussed briefly. No definite schedule was adopted, however, inasmuch as many of the stores have already adopted their own hours.

Leon Nicholas Takes Oath As Kunkletown Postmaster

Kunkletown—A new postmaster was sworn in here yesterday morning by C. H. Patterson, postal inspector from Stroudsburg.

The new head of the postoffice is Leon Nicholas, a life-long Kunkletown resident and veteran of World War Two. He succeeds Mae Pearol, who retired after serving since October, 1951. Miss Pearol's father, Herbert Pearol, was postmaster here for 30 years and his daughter assumed his post upon his retirement.

Nicholas attended elementary school in Eldred Township and was graduated from Palmerston High School in 1944. Entering the U. S. Army in 1944 he was assigned to the 38th Combat Team as a platoon sergeant and was graduated from Non-Commissioned Officers Training School at Fort Benning, Ga. He also holds a certificate from the National Radio Institute, Washington, D. C. Nicholas was honorably discharged from the Army in 1946. His last employment was at Pocono Metal Co. plant in East Stroudsburg.

Married to the former Helen Smith, also of Kunkletown, the new postmaster is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Nicholas, also of this place and father of two children.

The program will consist of two parts: the first, made up of music by composers of the 17th and 18th centuries—Bach, Handel, Boyce, Galuppi; the time following intermission will be devoted to compositions by 19th and 20th century composers—Herbert, Wagner, Rimsky-Korsakov, Dashed.

James Ifft, first oboe of the orchestra since its founding in the Fall of 1950, will play the Handel Oboe Concerto in G Minor, with accompaniment by the string section of the orchestra.

As usual there will not be an admission price. During intermission a collection will be received for the support of the orchestra, as the group depends entirely upon its friends for funds to purchase music and meet operating expenses.

Presbyterian Church Presents Pageant Describing 125-Year History Of Congregation

By Leonard Randolph

"For the People Had a Mind to Work," a pageant celebrating the 125th anniversary of the Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church, was presented Sunday night by members of the present congregation.

Written by Mrs. Horace Westbrook, the pageant traced the history of the church from its earliest beginning to the present day.

Through a series of six scenes and a prologue, Mrs. Westbrook outlined the character and basic functions of those persons who were directly responsible for the founding of the church and each of its succeeding forward steps.

Rich in detail, the pageant showed the result of much research into the background of the church itself and the community as a whole.

Since the production was to be presented in the auditorium of the church, most of the "scenery" was, of necessity, painted through the use of colorful language and a minimum number of properties.

Descriptive passages, written into the narration (read by William Wyckoff) served as the backdrop for each scene. A rather thorough portrait of the growth of the borough, as well as the church, emerged from these word paintings.

Technically speaking, the group worked against formidable odds in its presentation of so ambitious a work. It is a tribute to the overall quality of the production to say that they succeeded in overcoming most of the odds.

Using one long table and some benches, three candles and a quill pen as their principal properties, the group brought an air of authenticity and sincerity to each scene. This sincerity was evident in all of the scenes, but in the opening prologue, it was augmented by a startling dramatic simplicity which set the mood for the entire production.

In this initial scene, the characters assembled on the small "stage" in darkness while the narrator intoned a description of the scene. On a cue one of the actors struck a match, lit the candles sitting on the long table, providing the sole illumination for the scene. It was an effective and simple beginning, increasing the half-real quality of remembered voices from the past.

The quality was sustained, in varying degree, throughout. Members of the cast were (in order of appearance) Edward Williams, Joseph Wallace, Joseph Kovarik, Mrs. Ernest Campbell, Fannie Swartswelder, Mrs. Frank Mitchell, Mrs. Ann Putnam, Margaret Oildorf, Mrs. Clyde Pyle, Mrs. Arthur Ifft, A. W. Williams, Jonas May, Frank Dreher, Frank Kerr, Henry Kresge, Hayden Jones, Peter Wyckoff, Charles Bensinger, Homer Heller, William Wells, John LeBar, Harry Smith, Mrs. J. C. LeBar, Mrs. Charles Peters, Mrs. Frank Van Etten, Mrs. Jonas May, Mrs. John Foelker, Mrs. Joseph Wallace, Walter Wyckoff, Nancy Westbrook, Martha Williams, Susan Harmon, Margaret Denning, Marie Cohen, Shelby Carter, Barbara Wellington, Russell Harmon, Murrel Kiefer, Robert Hellmann, Horace Westbrook and Rev. Ernest T. Campbell.

Mrs. Elton Denning served as director of the pageant, whose direction and planning kept the spirit of the script while bringing out small moments of comedy for high entertainment value. The smoothness with which the scenes were enacted and the constant flow of dramatic mood from one scene to another may be attributed to Mrs. Denning's work with the actors.

Mrs. Westbrook's script performed a difficult job with good dramatic feeling and a kind of thorough authenticity seldom found in works of its kind. Perhaps the most outstanding feature of the pageant, however—its ability to entertain even those persons unfamiliar with the history of the church—was due entirely to its writing.

This "entertainment value" was most notable in the pageant's most youthful scene—a "backstage" view of a group of young girls discussing the 100th anniversary celebration. Here the author's knowledge of young people and an acute ear for adolescent dialogue combined to bring the scene to gleaming life.

The key feeling in the entire pageant may be traced to a passage at the beginning of the play when the narrator says:

"A Christian church does not begin at any one moment in the human history of time. It goes back through the martyrs of the Reformation, the saints of the early church, to Christ himself."

Stroudsburg High Opens Basketball Season Against Bangor

Mountaineers To Feature New Faces

Stroudsburg High school's basketball team, riddled with injuries even before the season gets underway, will open the 1952-1953 campaign today, when the Mountaineers play host to Bangor on the W. Main St. court, with both a junior varsity and varsity encounter on the agenda.

The preliminary contest will get underway at 7:15 p. m. and the main event approximately one hour later.

Coach Sam Russell will present a starting quintet of new faces, the members being graduated from last year's junior varsity or newcomers to the squad, with the exception of Ray Ciffer.

Ciffer, six feet tall and a senior, was a member of the squad last season. Ray is scheduled to hold down a guard position tonight.

Ronnie Wetherhold, a six-foot junior, is slated to handle the other guard position, while Dick Little, six feet, two inches tall, operates at center. Little is the only sophomore on the squad.

Byron "Chick" Miller, the smallest man on the starting five, at five-feet, nine inches, will be at one forward post, while Bill Hickey, six feet, one inch tall, operates out of the other forward post. Both Miller and Hickey are seniors.

Al Adelmann, recently reported from the football squad, is ready for action but won't start against Bangor. Adelmann is captain of the squad. Adelmann, a senior, is six feet, one inch tall.

Bill Bailey and Karl Weingartner, both on the sidelines at the present time as the result of injuries suffered in last week's football game with East Stroudsburg, will be lost to the squad for two weeks.

Benny Miller and Don Garaventi, both reporting from the football squad, may not play tonight, either, as both suffered minor injuries in the Thanksgiving Day grid battle. Miller, Garaventi and Weingartner are juniors, while Bailey is a senior.

Charley Edson, six-foot, five inch senior, will see duty tonight, as will Ray Ejdys, six-foot, two-inch junior.

Russell's varsity squad contains 12 players.

Floyd "Willie" Williams and Bill "Bump" Metzger were counted on to play varsity basketball this season, before football injuries forced them out of basketball in their senior year.

Bangor, under the direction of Coach John Heard, will present a veteran court combination tonight, as the Spartans present seven returning lettermen on the squad.

Both teams fly the maroon and white colors.

Stroudsburg is a member of the Lehigh Valley League, while Bangor operates out of the Lehigh-Northampton League.

Tuli Retains Flyweight Title

Nottingham, England, (AP)—Jake Tuli, Zulu tribesman from South Africa who holds the British Empire flyweight championship, won a technical knockout last night over Emile Delplanque when the Belgian champion failed to answer the bell for the fifth round of the 10 rounder.

Claim
Delplanque fell to the canvas just seconds before the fourth round ended, holding his stomach and claiming he was fouled by a low blow. From the ringside it appeared that Tuli's shoulder caught the Belgian in the solar plexus and he fell without being hit with a punch.

Referee Austin O'Connor, who had started a count in the fourth round when the bell sounded, ruled it as a TKO between the fourth and fifth rounds.

One More For Leading Jockey

Bowie, Md., (AP)—Tony DeSpirito rode one winner out of eight yesterday in his debut at Bowie to bring him within 24 of the world's record for the most firsts in one year.

Dixie Vixen
The 17-year-old apprentice jockey from Lawrence, Mass., brought in his 354th winner, Dixie Vixen, in the fifth race. The straight mutual was $4.60.

He is shooting for the record of 388 winners jointly held by Walter Miller, Joe Culmone and Willie Shoemaker.

Two Former Army Stars On Look's Squad

New York, (AP)—Two former Army stars, backs Gil Reich of Kansas and Gene Filipki of Villanova, have been selected for the Look magazine all-star football team, picked by Grantland Rice and the Football Writers Association of America.

The 22-man team, announced yesterday, has only one repeater from the '51 team, defensive end Frank McPhee of Princeton.

Top Lineup
Tackle Dick Modzelewski of Maryland was named winner of the writers' John B. Outland Memorial Trophy as "outstanding line-man of the year." He was chosen for the defensive squad.

The offensive team:
Ends—Bernie Flowers, Purdue, and Tom Stohlanske, Texas.

Tackles—Kline Gilbert, Mississippi, and Hal Miller, Georgia Tech.

Guards—Elmer Willhoite, Southern California, and John Michels, Tennessee.

Center—Tom Catlin, Oklahoma.

Backs—Jack Scarbath, Maryland; Billy Vessels, Oklahoma; Gene Filipki, Villanova, and Paul Giel, Minnesota.

The defensive team:
Ends—Frank McPhee, Princeton, and Don Voss, Wisconsin.

Tackles—Dick Modzelewski, Maryland, and Eldred Kraemer, Pittsburgh.

Guards—Frank Kish, Michigan State, and Harley Sewell, Texas.

Backers-up—Donn Moomaw, UCLA, and George Morris, Georgia Tech.

Halfbacks—John Lattner, Notre Dame, and Gil Reich, Kansas.

Safety—Jim Sears, Southern California.

Released
Craft succeeds George Selkirk, who was released last week.

Craft, an outfielder on Cincinnati's pennant-winning club in 1939 and 1940, has been a member of the Yankee organization since 1942.

Michigan State Selected As Number One Team In Nation

By Will Grimley

New York, (AP)—Michigan State, victor in 24 straight games, took the number one place in the Associated Press' final poll yesterday to win the O'Donnell Trophy, emblem of the national collegiate football championship.

The trophy was donated by the Notre Dame Monogram Club in honor of the late Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell, former player and later president of the South Bend, Ind., institution.

Trophies have been awarded for the national championship since 1924. When a team wins the title three times the trophy is retired and a new one set up by that school.

Trophy

The O'Donnell Trophy was established in 1948 after Notre Dame had won its third championship. It is awarded yearly on the basis of the final Associated Press poll. Tennessee won it last year.

The Michigan State Spartans won the honor for the first time this year in a walloping ballot in which 271 sports writers and broadcasters took part.

Pre-season favorites, they received 207 first place votes and a staggering total of 2,583 points, one of the largest ever accumulated in the poll.

Points are awarded on the basis of 10 for a first place vote, nine for second, etc.

Georgia Tech, Sugar Bowl-bound and the only other major unbeaten team in the nation, took second place in the final standings with 2,249 points, followed by Notre Dame, the upset king, with 1,809, and once-beaten and once-tied Oklahoma, with 1,685.

Order

Then came, in order: Southern California, UCLA, Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama and Texas.

However, Michigan State was virtually unchallenged as the new champion. Georgia Tech got the second highest total of first place votes, 26—171 less than the Spartans. Oklahoma received 14 and the others were sparsely scattered.

Clarence L. "Biggie" Munn, economy-sized Michigan State coach, received the news enthusiastically in New York where he addressed a luncheon meeting of football writers, but he proved modest.

Baltimore To Return To Pro Football

Philadelphia, (AP)—Baltimore will be in the National Football League again in 1953 with a new franchise and the playing roster it was learned here yesterday.

The NFL and a Baltimore group are "very close to agreement" on conditions that would return professional football to Baltimore, league Commissioner Bert Bell said.

The commissioner inferred that unless there is a last minute change of heart by either side, Baltimore will operate in the NFL in 1953 with a veteran team. Baltimore will receive a new franchise, not the one recently forfeited by the Dallas Texans. Too, the Baltimore team will probably have a new nickname instead of Colts.

Signing
Bell is expected to go to Baltimore either tomorrow or Thursday to sign formally a new agreement. Negotiations for return of Baltimore to the league have been going on for more than a year. It is believed the fall of the Dallas franchise hurried the Baltimore deal.
